Passover 2010
Kibbutz Hotel Kfar Giladi

Kfar Giladi, Israel

Kibbutz Hotel Kfar Giladi is situated in the heart of the peaceful and pastoral Upper Galilee, within view of snow covered Mount Hermon, the Golan Heights and the Hula Valley. It is surrounded by green hills, nature reserves, rivers, archeological and holy sites.

The Galilee is a region offering an extraordinary variety of archeological/holy sites, museums, galleries, ranches, restaurants, nature reserves, rivers, cultural activities such as hiking, jeep rides, horseback riding, kayak/river rafting, skiing on Mount Hermon, ice skating, birdwatching, fishing and many more. All within a short distance from Kibbutz Hotel Kfar Giladi.

For those who want to combine active sports like hiking, rafting and exploring heritage [historical] sites with just lounging by the pool, we warmly recommend this new Pesach program in Israel's beautiful national playground, the Galil. At Kfar Giladi, you'll enjoy beautiful indoor and outdoor pools, a spa, tennis courts, strictly kosher gourmet food, an inspiring program, and the warm, personal touch for which this Pesach program is known in an exciting, family-friendly location overlooking the snow-capped Mt. Hermon and lush Hula Valley.

Kibbutz Kfar Giladi has 175 large air-conditioned rooms, all equipped with shower, bath, telephone, radio and tv with video/satellite.

Enhanced by lawns, flower beds, natural forests and dedicated personnel that will do its utmost to make you feel welcome.

In addition you have at your disposal: kibbutz walking tour, movie/lecture, about kibbutz life, kosher cuisine, bar/snack bar, conference and banquet halls, synagogue, fax/e-mail services, safety deposit box, indoor heated swimming pool, outdoor swimming pool (seasonal), health club, sauna, gym and two tennis courts.

The kibbutz hotel initiates programs and activities in agriculture, bird watching, adventure tours, sports, etc.

What is the Kashrut?

The Hechsher is Rabbanut. The meat is Glatt Rabbanut and the poultry is Mehadrin, as are the dairy and dry food products.
